

Map Games!

Map games can be fun and educational! No matter how old your children are, there are many fun activities to do with the map of the United States.

Print out multiple copies of the maps on the following pages and try some of these activities on your next trip:

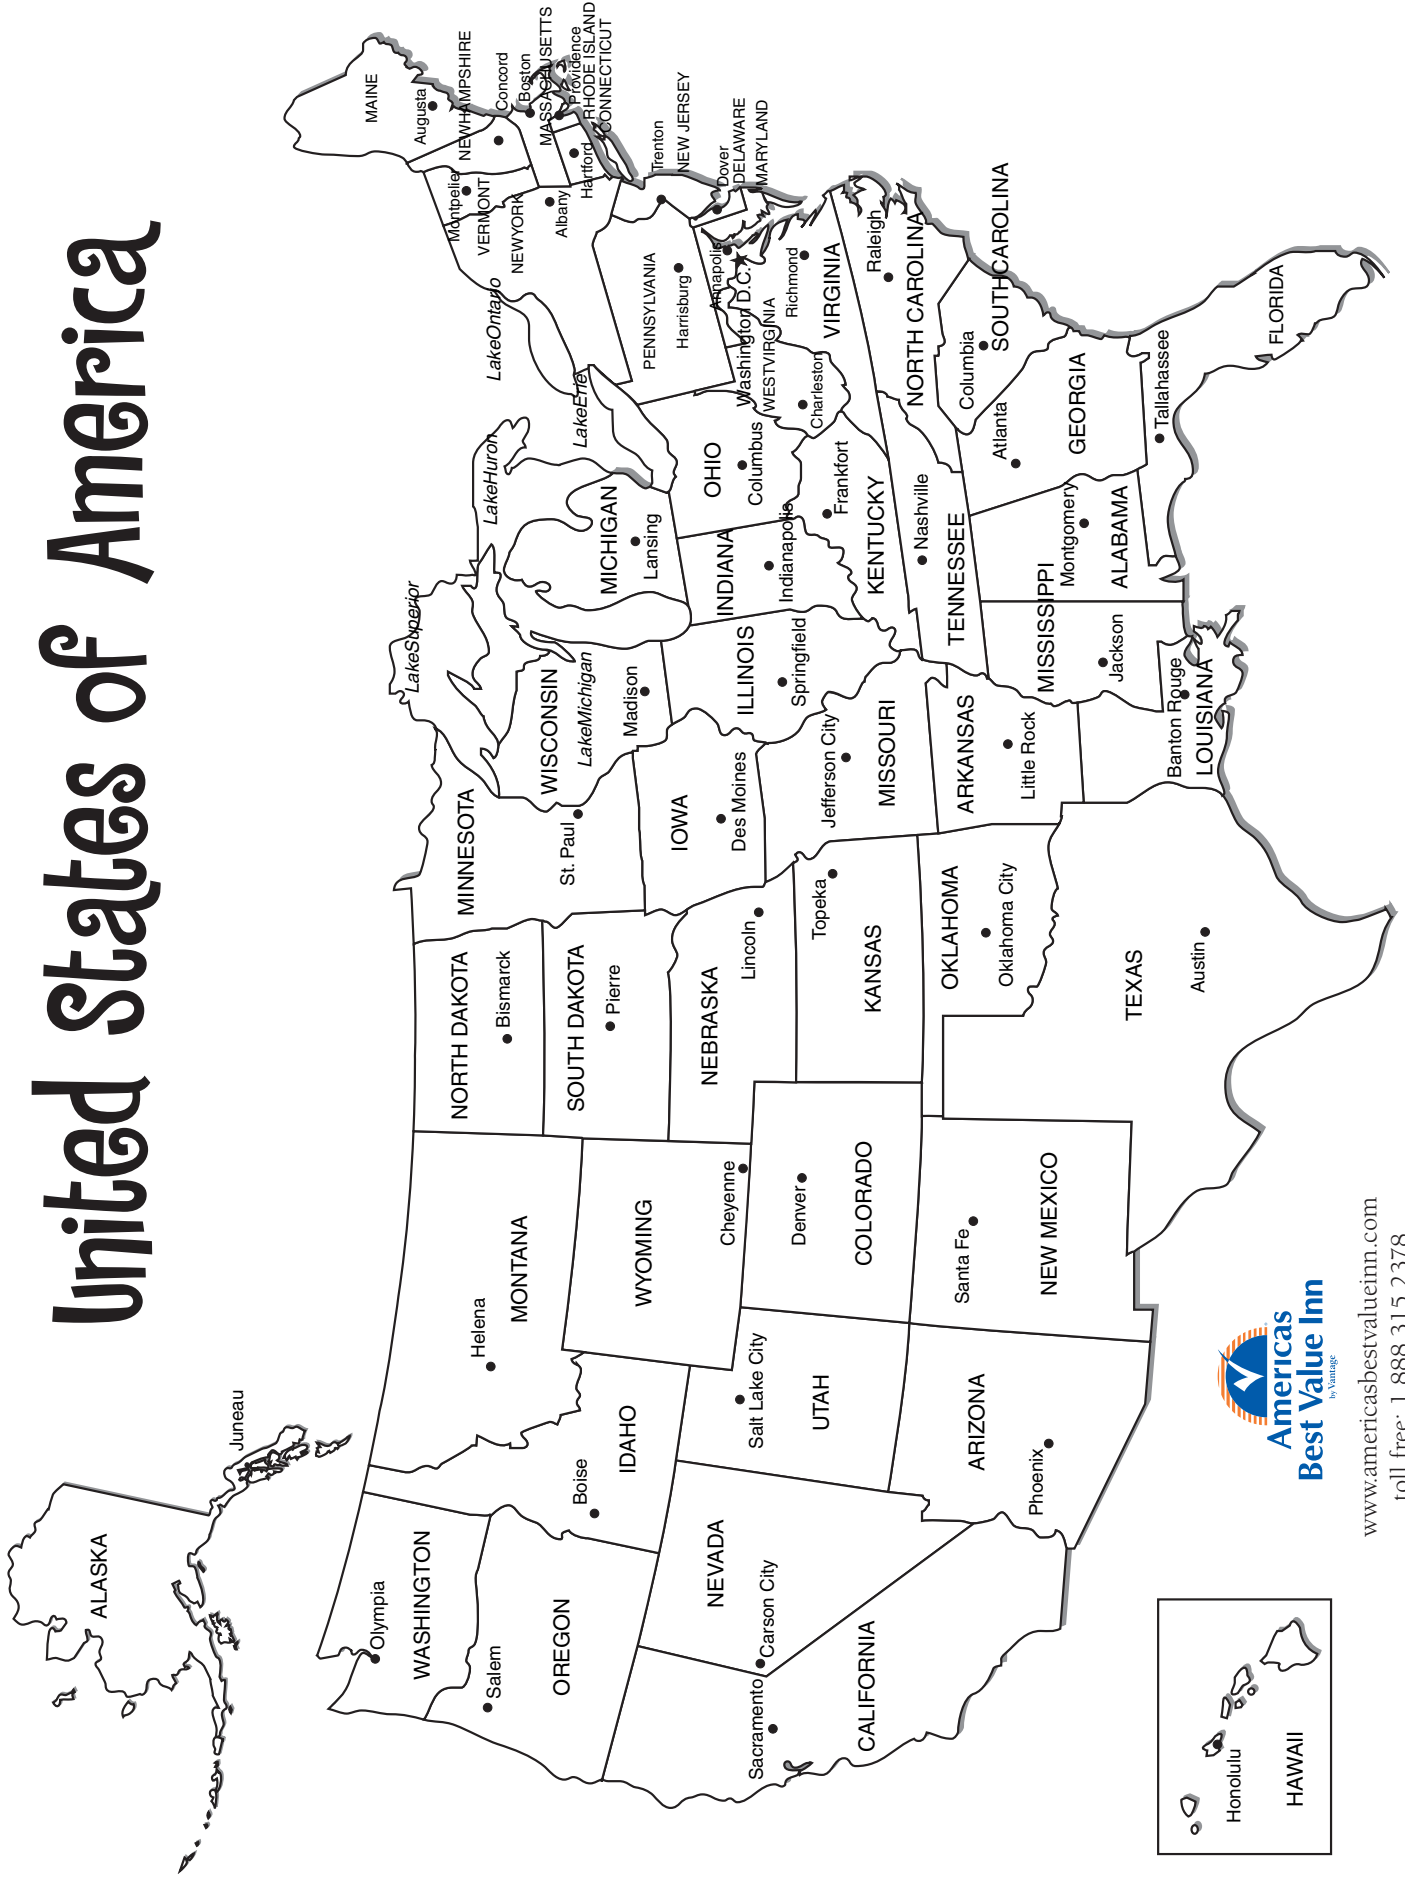

- ✓ Map out your trip by coloring the states through which you travel.
- ✓ Color the states where members of your family and friends live.
- ✓ Do you know a song with the name of a city or state in the lyrics? Sing the song and color the state!
- ✓ Color the states you would like to visit one day.
- ✓ Color the state of each license plate you see.
- ✓ Write the correct abbreviation in each state.
- ✓ Write the correct capital for each state.
